LLOYD MALL

LLOYDMINSTER, AB

Lloyd Mall is the dominant shopping centre, and only enclosed mall within a regional trade area of over 195,000 people served by the hub of Lloydminster, Alberta. Located on the border of Alberta and Saskatchewan, roughly halfway between Edmonton (250km West) and Saskatoon (270km East), Lloydminster is a young, growing and vibrant community with an economy driven by the agriculture and oil and gas sectors.

Home to a regional hospital, and over 2.6 M sf of retail space, including virtually every major large format retailer in Canada, Lloydminster serves as the regional retail hub and service centre for communities as far North as Cold Lake, AB, and as far East as North Battleford, SK. Many Saskatchewan residents will travel to Alberta in order to avoid paying any provincial sales taxes (PST), which significantly increases the draw of Lloyd Mall.

With a GLA of just over 200,000 sf, Lloyd Mall was fully renovated in 2021. Anchored by Safeway, Shoppers Drug Mart, Urban Planet and Dollarama, Lloyd Mall is also home to several notable retailers such as Bath Body Works, Maurices, Boathouse, Quark's and many others.

With food, drug and liquor tenancies, as well as an array of food and service uses, the centre draws significant daily traffic and serves as a convenient one stop shopping destination for locals and visitors alike.
